

Hi Everyone,

The Lord provides! (Matt 6:25-34) As many of you know, we found an apartment for an ok price - it was clean, had enough space and was in a nice neighborhood. The only catch was, it only had a frig... no other major appliances. So we expected some huge move in costs. A few days before we hoped to move in, the director of the school called us and said they had a school apartment become available and if we wanted, it was ours. After taking a look, it was a no-brainer! The school apartment was perfect for us and nearly half the price of the first option. It has all the major appliance, plus other furniture that we did not have. We are so thankful for the Lord providing this new place. It is right across from a good friend of ours from the church and in the same nice neighborhood.

We are moving our stuff over today. Dan is still away in Pedasi with the Christian Surfer's Leadership Conference. He is in charge of logistics, food, transportation, etc. I talked with him yesterday and he said the trip was going well. He went fishing, in hopes to catch the group dinner and caught a 150lb. sailfish (which they threw back... I guess it's not good eating) and 7 tuna! So they ate well last night! The group is expected home tomorrow and then 2 more groups come in this weekend.... none of which Dan is in charge of, but we will be joining one of the trips in Santa Catalina for a few days.

The kids are well. Everyone is a little homesick and tired of moving around. Many of the kids in Panama are away to the States for summer break, so we are a little lonely. But everyone returns in a week or so, and school begins August 7th, so all that will change soon.

Thank you to everyone who has been supporting us financially and through prayer. I can feel everyone's prayers and feel so blessed to have a great support system. Here is how you can be praying for us this week.

Prayer requests:

Please pray that...

- Our visa paperwork goes through and we can receive our shipment from the States.
- Dan and the CS group arrive home safely
- The next two missions trips share the Love of Jesus and spread the Gospel
- The kids adjust to a new home
- The Lord will give us strength through this time of homesickness and adjustment
- We are healthy and rested!!!!

Once again, thanks for your support.

Blessings,

Jess (Dan and the kids too!)
